New appointment to Board of Directors at Cornèr Bank

The general meeting of shareholders of Cornèr Bank has elected Alberto Petruzzella to the Board of Directors, as successor to Aldo Allidi.

Today's general meeting of shareholders of Cornèr Bank Ltd. expressed their thanks to Aldo Allidi, who had communicated that he would not be standing for re-election after having served on the Board of Directors for 19 years. During this time, Aldo Allidi made a significant contribution to the growth of Cornèr Bank Group.

The general meeting of shareholders elected Alberto Petruzzella as his successor. Alberto Petruzzella has spent most of his career at major Swiss banking groups active in Ticino, where he has always held managerial positions.

Alberto Petruzzella's long-standing experience and excellent professional skills are sure to be of benefit to the Board of Directors and to Cornèr Bank Group as a whole.
